1.1.3 Connectivity Phase

To ensure a smooth experience with our internal tools, we offer training sessions to help familiarize members with the graphical user interface. Should you require it, please feel free to schedule a test session or training, and the Onboarding Team will assist you. SWIFT message formats are available on My Standards, with access provided upon request.

Step 1: SWIFT (RMA exchange and CUG subscription)

To connect to ES-MIL via SWIFT, the Client must join the CUG (Closed User Group) by registering on SWIFT. The reference CUG is named EXP. Registration must be completed for both the production environment and the test environment, i.e. in EXP (Live) and in EXP (Test). Once CUG registration is complete and the key exchange with the ES-MIL BIC (MOTIIT22, MOTIIT22RRG, MOTIIT22CUS for production, MOTIIT20, MOTIIT20RRG, MOTIIT20CUS for testing) is done, messages can be selected in the relevant section of CLIMP, section of MOTI4U Portal.

The RMA (Relationship Management Application) exchanges must be performed on the SWIFT platform between the respective BICs, to confirm their permission and connectivity.

Please note that ES-MIL is using 15022 and 20022 SWIFT messages for settlement whereas SWIFT 20022 for asset services will be available from February 2026.

Our clients can access their securities accounts, view Corporate Actions and payment messages. Other ancillary functionalities, such as Election Services and document repository, are made available to our clients via MT-X.

REAL TIME DASHBOARD

SETTLEMENT

ACCESS TO THE SERVICE →

X-TRM is the pre-settlement platform of Euronext Securities /Milan that enables the ICPs to route domestic trades (on exchange and OTC) to T2S Platform and ensures the relevant settlement reporting. Finally, through its new functionalities, the platform allows all participants to conclude cross-border settlements with connected markets.

MEMBERSHIP

ACCESS TO THE SERVICE →

CLIMP is the platform available to clients for the overall management of the membership with Euronext Securities /Milan. Through its user-friendly functionalities, participants can set-up and control their own securities and cash accounts, providing operational details that are useful for an optimal account administration, including the contractual and operational power of attorney.

1.2 Accounts

1.2.1 Type of account

ES-MIL offers three types of accounts for managing securities and financial assets. In compliance with the CSDR, when opening an account, clients must choose between a Property Account or a Third-Party Account. This requirement aims to enhance the safety and efficiency of securities settlement.

Moreover, clients can request ES-MIL to open as many segregated accounts as per their business needs following the CSDR level of segregation.

1. Third Party Account (OM): intended to record financial instruments that Participants hold on behalf of their clients.
2. Property Account (OW): Intended to record the financial instruments owned by Participants. The proprietary accounts are opened in the name and upon request of the Participant.

3. Segregated Account (IS): An individual account separates the securities of each client into distinct accounts.

1.2.2 Account Management

Opening an Account

- When opening an account, clients must provide specific information such as the parent BIC, party BIC, description of operations, and the type of segregation. Once the information is submitted via CLIMP, ES-MIL evaluates and validates the request, assigning an account identifier if necessary.

Modifying an Account

- Clients can modify the attributes of their accounts, such as the type of segregation or the start and end dates for the use of auto-collateralization. These modifications entered via CLIMP also require validation by ES-MIL to ensure compliance and security.

Closing an Account

- To close an account, clients must indicate a proposed closure date. ES-MIL evaluates this request and may adjust the date without invalidating the request. The closure of an account is subject to checks to ensure there are no ongoing transactions.

Transferring an Account

- Transferring an account from one party to another involves selecting the source and destination parties, as well as the accounts to be transferred. The proposed transfer date is evaluated by ES-MIL, which may adjust it if necessary.
